The nominating committee

Nominate candidates for the Electoral College

The Faculty of Social Sciences is to elect its representatives for the Electoral College for the term 2015-03-01 – 2018-02-28.

The Electoral College shall fulfill the requirements of Chapter 2 Section 8 of the HEO on the University Board’s obligation to consult teaching staff, other staff and students in the process of appointing a vice-chancellor or deputy vice-chancellor.

The representatives of teaching staff with research or artistic expertise and of other staff on the Electoral College appoint teaching staff representatives to the University Board through elections and are responsible for any by-elections.

The Electoral College has 48 members of which 24 are teaching staff with research or artistic expertise and 12 represent other staff. The students appoint 12 members. The Faculty of Social Sciences elects three teachers with research expertise and one representative for other staff.

Members of teaching staff with research expertise at the faculty are eligible for election as representative of the teaching staff. Members of staff at the faculty that are not teaching staff with research expertise are eligible for election as representative of other staff.

The nominating committee invites those entitled to vote to nominate candidates to the Faculty’s four places.

Entitled to vote and nominate are employees of Lund University who are employed at the Faculty of Social Sciences until further notice or for a continuous period of at least two years and whose employment is equal to at least 50 per cent of full-time hours. Holders of doctoral studentships are not entitled to vote or nominate as they are regarded as students in this context in accordance with Chapter 1 Section 4 of the HEO.

For the register of voters and eligibility list, please refer to www.sam.lu.se/en/elections.

Nominations are to be sent to valberedning@sam.lu.se no later than 6th of January 2015. Nominating oneself is permitted. The nominee must be asked and available for commission.
