

GenderHub Presents: Gender studies day, “Crisis and resistance”

09.00 -16.00 Oktober 29th, 2025, G:a Kirurgen, House: R, Sandgatan 13, Lund

Program

09.15 - 09.20 Welcome and opening, Mia Liinason, Amaranta Thompson, Helle Rydström and Sara Goodman, Cordinator and Co-coordinators, GenderHub, House: R, Room 236.

09.20 - 09.45 Opening talk by Helle Rydström, Co-cordinator of GenderHub, House: R, Room 236.

09.45 - 10.00 Fika, House: G, Room 133.

10.00 - 11.30 Panel 1: “Crisis and resistance: New research perspectives” House: R, Room 236.

Moderator: Sara Goodman, Divison of Gender Studies.

- Kanchana N Ruwanpura, Divison of Human Geography, Gothenburg University. “Debt, Distress and Defiance: Gendering the Debt Crisis (via Sri Lanka)”
- Catia Gregoratti, Department of Political Science. “Training for Change: Promoting Caring Masculinities in the Global South”
- Malte Breiding, Department of Political Science. “Resisting Polarisation over LGBTIQ equality in the European Union”

11.30 - 12.30 Lunch, provided by Genderhub in House: G, Kitchen second floor.

12.30 - 14.00 Panel 2 and Panel 3:

Panel 2: “Ecology, sustainability and resistance” House: R, Room 236

Moderator: Mia Liinason, Division of Gender studies.

- Kimberly Montañez-Medina, Department of Economic History and Catalina Quiroga, Department of Human Geography. “Water Carriers, Forest Guardians, and Environmental Leadership: Gendered Histories from the Colombian Caribbean”
- Martina Angela Caretta, Department of Human Geography. “When patriarchy and agro-extractivism impede women’s political participation and collective agency. An analysis of Ecuadorian women’s time poverty and its implications for ecological care.”
- Alva Zalar, Department of Human Geography. “Rethinking sustainability through queer perspectives on transition and vulnerability”
- Riya Raphael, Division of Gender Studies. “Envisioning waste utopias to create dignified waste work”

Panel 3: “Care, philanthropy and resistance” G:a Polikliniken House: M, Room 331.

Moderator: Maja Sager, Division of Gender Studies.

- Yvonne Jila, Division of Sociology. “Collective Care Practices in Women’s Movements: The Case of Zimbabwe”
- Catia Gregoratti, Department of Political Science and Sofie Tornbill, Department of Global Studies, Gothenburg University. “Does anybody still care about gender? Private philanthropic foundations resourcing feminist movements in the Global South”
- Lucia Amaranta Thompson, Division of Gender Studies. “Caring interactions: The cannabis community in Buenos Aires, Argentina”

14.00 - 15.30 Panel 4: “Security, the new far right and resistance” House: R, Room 236.

Moderator: Irina Schmit, Division of Gender Studies.

- Katharina Kehl, Institute for Human Rights, “Queer mobilisation(s) - LGBTQ+ rights in contemporary narratives of threat, protection, and preparedness in Sweden”
- Bibi Imre-Millei, Department of Political Science. “Engaging with the military on gendered issues in times of polarisation, militarisation, backlash, and crisis”
- Mia Liinason, Division of Gender Studies. “The promise of a different Europe”. Gender, religion and the sacralization of politics in the new far right”
- Sophia Zisakou, Department of Sociology of Law. “Feeling Queer in Translation: Credibility and (dis)order in the Asylum Process”

15.30 - 16.00 Fika, House: R, Room 236.

Warm welcome,

Mia Liinason, professor and Coordinator GenderHub, Division of Gender Studies, Department of Sociology.

Helle Rydstrom, professor and Co-coordinator GenderHub, Division of Gender Studies, Department of Sociology.

Sara Goodman, Co-coordinator GenderHub, Division of Gender Studies, Department of Sociology.

Amaranta Thompson, Co-coordinator GenderHub, Division of Gender Studies, Department of Sociology.

Cornelia Andersson, Administrator GenderHub, Division of Gender Studies, Department of Sociology.

Gender Studies Day, Organised as a part of the GenderHub at the Faculty of Social Sciences at Lund University.

