

COURSES & RESTRICTIONS

Courses

Faculty of Social Sciences offer un-dergraduate and graduate courses in English. See also the course guide for exchange studies for more information on courses within the Social Sciences Faculty: www.lunduniversity.lu.se/social-sciences Courses can also be taken at RWK faculties as complementary studies: www.lunduniversity.lu.se/rwk

Course load

1.5 Swedish university credits equal 1.5 ECTS-credits, representing one week of full-time studies. Exchange students are expected to take a full-time course load of 30 credits per semester. Course modules generally vary in scope from 7.5 credits to 15 credits. The study rate lies between 25% and 100%. Examination may take various forms and can be based on active participation in seminars, oral presentations-individually and in groups-, written examinations in the form of papers and critical reflections on the course literature.

Restrictions

Exchange students coming on an agreement with the Faculty of Social Sciences, or one of the Faculty of Social Sciences' departments, must take at least half of their credits (15 ECTS) at the Faculty of Social Sciences. While students may include external courses in their applications, they are neither prioritized nor guaranteed admission to courses outside the Faculty of Social Sciences.

GRADING

The grading scale may vary between the different faculties and departments: www.lunduniversity.lu.se/student-services-and-support/grades-credits-and-certificates/grading-system A verifiable digital transcript can be downloaded from the Student Portal once the results have been reported. Hard copies are only sent upon request by the home university.

HOUSING

There are several different housing providers; LU Accommodation is one of them. LU Accommodation manages a limited number of rooms and flats in Lund, Helsingborg and Malmö. The housing application for exchange studies should be done as soon as possible. The application dates and deadlines may vary, and exchange students are not guaranteed housing.
